Room 127

- Course Overview:

This class will focus on improving written responses while addressing themes relevant to a reasoned reading of different texts as models. In addition, the course will include an in-depth review of grammar and an amplification of vocabulary with an emphasis on continuing development. As well as the study and practice of different techniques in the writing process.

Prerequisite: This course is open to students who have achieved a grade of C or better in Spanish IV.

- Overall Course Objectives (from curriculum):

Students will demonstrate improved written expression. They will be able to discuss and express their own ideas more clearly, using an increased knowledge and improved application of grammar, vocabulary and idiomatic expressions. Students will enjoy a deeper understanding of culture and history as presented through readings as they relate to the themes presented. Students will improve their ability to think critically and to analyze texts.
